

NABSnet

Northern Australia Biosecurity Surveillance network

Cattle Skin Survey - 2023 and 2024

Your participation provides the livestock industry with evidence on what is typically causing skin lesions in cattle in northern Australian

- What it involves:
- Your private vet takes skin biopsies from affected cattle
 - Submits them to a laboratory for a confirmed diagnosis
 - Discusses the results and any management implications
 - All costs subsidised by the project

December 2023

If you suspect an EXOTIC DISEASE call 1800 675 888